SUBSCRIPTION ARR — DATA LIMITATION

Zoho CRM does not store per-customer subscription ARR as a discrete field. The Annual_Revenue field captures the account's company revenue (e.g. Canada Revenue Agency: $447.8B), not what they pay ImportGenius. Closed-won deal amounts for Canadian accounts over the last 12 months total approximately $120,000-$135,000, representing contract value at close — the closest available ARR proxy in CRM. For accurate subscription ARR, cross-reference with Recurly billing data.

Ontario dominates at 43.6% of Canadian customers. Quebec (20.6%) and BC (15.8%) round out the top three. ~10% of records have missing or miscoded province data — data cleanup recommended.

Top 50 Canadian Customers by Deal Value

Note on "Annual Revenue" field: Zoho CRM's Annual_Revenue stores each account's total company revenue — not what they pay ImportGenius. Canada Revenue Agency appears at #1 with $447.8B in government budget. These figures reflect organizational scale, not subscription value. For subscription ARR, cross-reference with Recurly.

49 of 50 top accounts are "Customer" type; one is "Media" (CBC Radio). Ontario accounts dominate the top 50 with 31 entries. Notable: mastronardi and Mastronardi Produce appear to be duplicate CRM records for the same company — data cleanup recommended. Total Annual_Revenue across all 539 Canadian accounts: ~$628B (heavily skewed by CRA at $447.8B).

WHY A RELIABLE CHURN RATE CANNOT BE CALCULATED

Zoho CRM does not systematically track churn events. Key issues:

- ~57% of Canadian customer accounts (287 of 500) have a null Subscription_Status — these could be active, lapsed, or historical with no way to distinguish.
- No "Former Customer" or "Churned" Account_Type values exist anywhere in the system.
- Only 10 accounts globally have a Cancelled or Expired status — clearly an under-count of actual churn events.
- Closed Lost deals (119 total, ~4 Canadian) are a partial signal for prospects who never converted, not existing customer churn.

Recommendation: Reliable churn metrics require either (a) Recurly cancellation event data, or (b) a systematic CRM process to update Subscription_Status when accounts cancel. Currently, CRM churn data is not actionable.

Closed-Won Rate: Canada vs. Overall

Total Decided Deals	77	1,890
Open Pipeline Deals (CA)	~36 open deals	600+ Qualified stage
Quantified Pipeline Value (CA)	~$134,859	N/A (amounts sparse)

Canadian companies close at 94.8% — slightly above the global rate of 93.7%. Both rates are notably high because CRM "deals" primarily represent subscription activations with a low-friction sales process, not a traditional long-cycle funnel. The Closed Lost count is deliberately small (only formally logged losses).
